

Fordson

$625 f. o. b. Detroit

The Fordson saves from thirty to fifty per cent of the farmer's time.

The Fordson plows, harrows, drills as much ground in the same time as from four to six horses. (Many farmers say it does the work of eight horses.)

The Fordson does for the farmer just what machine power does for the manufacturer—it enables him to manufacture his product at less cost. And that is what the farmer wants to do; grow his crops more cheaply and make his margin of profit greater. And the Fordson will help him do it.

Let us prove this to you by a demonstration on your own farm. Just phone us or drop us a card.

PLEASANT SHADE.

Good showers have fallen within the past few days. Crops are looking better and prospects for a harvest are fair. There is but little tobacco planted in this section.

The work on the road below town has stopped temporarily. It is hoped this worthy undertaking will be resumed soon.

Rev. C. B. Massey is in a revival meeting this week at the Gladys church.

Mrs. Henry Oldham is improving after several week's illness.

A protracted meeting is in progress at this place. It is being conducted by Revs. Stone and Phillips. There have been several conversions so far.

Miss Nannie Gregory spent Monday with relatives at this place.

All the schools in this section opened Monday. The schools with their respective teachers are as follows: Kittrell's, L. B. Thomas; Sanderson's, Mrs. Oda Thomas; Pleasant Shade, L. B. Mathews and Miss Eva Downs; Piper's, Genie Oldham; Mace's Hill, G. W. Goad and Miss Agnes Beasley.

Rev. Henry Oldham has just returned from a meeting at Mt. Vernon church.

A number of our people are attending court this week at Carthage.

Henry Massey, who has been in a government sanatorium in North Carolina for some time, is visiting relatives in this section. He was a soldier in the late war and contracted a severe stomach trouble which has rendered him an invalid, probably for life.

Kinney Kemp of near Bethpage is visiting in this community.

Rev. Calvin Gregory returned home Monday after an absence of several days in revival work. He will leave next Sunday for Gleason, Tenn., to assist in a revival meeting.

Our telephone company seems to be in a very unsatisfactory condition. It is reported to be several hundred dollars in debt, although it was paid out only a short time ago by requiring all to buy a stock.

Marshall and Arthur Claridy, Paul Wilburn and Bud Beal spent last week near Rogana.

Rev. H. M. Wakefield has returned from an absence of about three weeks in religious work near Cookeville and elsewhere.

I. P. McDonald, one of our best citizens, will leave Wednesday for Gallatin where he will make his home in the future. He expects to go in business with his brother, Ethley, who formerly resided at Meadorville but moved to Gallatin some time ago. We are sorry to see this good man leave our community. He will be greatly missed by his many friends over the county.

Revs. Massey and Gregory, with a number of other ministers and deacons, organized a Missionary Baptist church at Old Hopewell, near Rogana, last Tuesday. There were 15 members in the constitution of the church but there were 20 additions to the church during a week's meeting conducted by Rev. Gregory. There will be an all-day singing with this new church on the first Sunday in September. All the singers of this section are urged to be present.

Walter Hiatt is making arrangements to spend the winter in Florida. He has been in bad health for some time and is hopeful that a change of climate will prove helpful.

In which we double-cross a master mind

TALK ABOUT dime novels.

THEY SENT Jim down.

TO TEXAS to investigate.

SOME OIL wells there.

WHICH THEY might buy.

IF JIM said O.K.

AND HE was to report.

BY WIRE in secret code.

NOW—ENTER the villain.

A SLIPPERY crook.

GOT WIND of it.

AND TRAILED Jim down.

COPIED OFF his code.

AND BRIBED a boob.

IN THE telegraph branch.

SO THE crook could get.

THE EARLIEST word.

AND CORNER stock.

AND WORK a hold-up.

IT LOOKED like easy coin.

BUT JIM got wise.

AND THREW away his code.

AND WHEN he sent.

THE FINAL dope.

HE FOILED the villain.

"CHESTERFIELD."

AND HIS directors knew.

THAT ALL was well.

WITH THOSE oil wells.

FOR OIL men know.

THAT "CHESTERFIELD" means.

"THEY SATISFY."

YOU'LL know you've "struck it rich" when you discover Chesterfields. You'll say "they satisfy." A wonderful blend—the pick of Turkish and Domestic tobaccos—put together in the Chesterfield way—that's why "they satisfy." And the Chesterfield blend can not be copied!

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?
